

DAAD

German Academic Exchange Service

Francisk Skorina Gomel State University is an active participant and member of German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). This is one of the largest world organization which encourages international student and academic mobility.

Close cooperation has been established between our University and Information Center of German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) affiliated with Belarusian National Technical University.

Annually the representatives of our University participate in DAAD scholarship programmes for undergraduates, master students, doctoral students, young researchers and academicians who inspire to improve their academic skills in Germany. Educative seminars with the participation of German Academic Exchange Service lectures are held in GSU several times a year.

On a regular basis DAAD representatives organize for students special presentations of their scholarship programmes.

In 2015 our three students were awarded DAAD scholarships for participation in summer school organized in Germanic universities.
