

Cabinet of Polish language

Polish language study courses are conducted in the Cabinet of Polish language which was established in 2004 with the assistance of Embassy of the Republic of Poland in the Republic of Belarus. The Cabinet is equipped with the relevant study literature, video library and video techniques, dictionaries, computers, satellite TV.

The two-year Polish language courses for students and adults functioned at the Department of Belarusian language since October 2002. The course participants received the certificates of the completion (issued by the Polish Institute, Minsk) both in Belarusian and Polish languages. Some of the most outstanding participants – both teachers and students – had a chance to undertake internship in Polish summer schools.
